There will be a special meeting of Queen's Hospital trustees at 10 a. m. Friday.

King Bros. are closing out a line of photo albums and plush toilet sets at cost.

Co. B is summoned for drill this evening, yesterday's notice having been an error.

Dr. C. B. High, dentist, graduate Philadelphia Dental College, 1892, Masonic Temple.

There will be a meeting of the Leilani Boat Club at the Hawaiian Hotel this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

A crazy Chinaman was arrested at noon. He will be examined during the day by police surgeon Emerson.

Kakalia was arrested this morning on complaint of T. V. King, who charges him with the larceny of a bicycle.

If it's a watch you want to give friend or relation for Christmas, H. F. Wichman can suit you in either style or price.

The case of S. Loudon, charged with smuggling opium, was called in the police court this morning, but continued until Friday morning.

Dr. Emily B. Ryder will begin a course of lectures to ladies on Monday evening next at Y. M. C. A. hall, when admission will be free.

Up to twelve noon today no more dope had been found in the Washington Feed Co.'s goods. A few more cases had yet to be examined.

Several very pretty airs dedicated to the Fawley Company and composed by Geo. W. Leslie of the troupe, are on sale at Wall, Nichols Co.'s.

Prof. Burns is teaching a class in different branches of gymnastics. Anyone desiring a thorough course of training will do well to call on Mr. Burns.

If the steamer does not prevent the band will play at 10 tomorrow morning for the children of the Free Kindergartens and their friends who come to Queen Emma hall.

The old shanties in the rear of No. 1 engine house were lately torn down, and it is said the Government intends erecting a repair shop for the fire department on the site.

Mrs. George E. Boardman calls the attention of the public to her annual display of articles suitable for holiday gifts, which is now ready for inspection at her residence, Luualilo street.

Iwakami, the Hotel street dealer in Japanese curios, silks and novelties, has just received the largest consignment ever brought to Honolulu. The stock comprises all the latest novelties and is most complete and varied. A visit to his place is sure to produce something that you will want, and the price is within your means.

Regarding J. Upchurch, a Kamehameha School lad, who was injured in a blasting accident last June, Handicraft says that up to this time he has lain with light excluded from his eyes. He is now at the Queen's Hospital, where Dr. Wood and Dr. Day have operated with considerable success upon one eye and will operate later upon the other. E. Manase, who was hurt at the same time, recovered in about two weeks.

THE MILLS OF JUSTICE.

Petition to End Trust—Decision of Supreme Court.

Judgment has been entered for the recovery of $696.85 and interest by David Dayton, administrator, against C. L. Hopkins and W. Larsen, the whole amount being $778.35.

The judgment above noted is the sequel of a decision of the Supreme Court, by Chief Justice Judd, overruling exceptions of the defendants. It is held that "failure to allege in the declaration the death of a joint maker of a promissory note who was not made a defendant may be cured by verdict and is not a proper subject of a motion in arrest of judgment." Magoon & Edings for plaintiff; Humphreys for defendant.

The Hickey divorce case could not possibly be completed, there being eleven witnesses for the libelee to examine, before the end of the term, and by agreement of counsel it was continued till next term.

The November term of the Circuit Court adjourned sine die at 4:37 yesterday.

Akoni was arrested on Molokai under a warrant issued out of the First Circuit Court for distilling spirituous liquor. Judge Carter will sit as trial judge on his case Saturday morning.

Hannah Nakai Everett and Alice E. Davis, widow and daughter respectively of the late Edward Everett, have filed a petition to terminate the trust under decedent's will, showing by exhibit of deed that they have purchased the reversionary interest of Alice Everett Hall of Seattle, sister of decedent. The estate has been turned into securities and cash valued at about $4000, and J. A. Magoon is the trustee.

Christmas Notice.

If you want to find out what a dollar will purchase in the way of groceries for Christmas, just bring one along to the Palama Grocery, and you will be surprised at its purchasing power. Celestials are usually close buyers, and the fact that we serve a good number of them speaks volumes for our prices. H. Cannon, Palama Grocery, opposite Railway Depot, King street. Telephone 755 every time.

City Carriage Co., J. S. Andrade, manager. If you want a hack with good horse and careful driver ring up Telephone 113, corner of Fort and Merchant streets. Hack at all hours.

Queen's Hospital.

A Special Meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Queen's Hospital will be held on Friday, December 4th, 1896, at 10 a. m., at the room of the Chamber of Commerce. Business of importance. A full attendance is requested.

Per order, F. A. SCHAEFER, Secretary.

ADDS WINGS

To a Bicycle

When Cyclists brace their muscles, brighten their spirits, regulate their pulses, clear their brains and steady their nerves with the new African tonic-stimulant. In athletics and in all outdoor sports and pastimes the highest results with the least conscious effort follow the use of the great vitalizer and invigorant.

Vino-Kolafra

This incomparable preparation develops latent energy, intensifies and sustains the heartbeat, retards and deepens the breathing, restrains tissue combustion under exertion, prevents fatigue and has no reaction or bad after-effect. A day's outing with VINO-KOLAFRA is worth a dozen without it. A tonic unparalleled for feeble persons and invalids. Pleasure without satiety. Work without exhaustion. Endorsed by Physicians and Scientists.

LEWIS & Co.

There are few gourmets in Honolulu who do not know our Maltese Cross Hams. They are cured expressly for us and are infinitely better than any other ham on the market for boiling or roasting. This brand of ham is from selected stock and is in the pickle a uniform number of hours. They cost a trifle more than ordinary hams but they are fifty per cent. better in quality.

If you want to roast one of these hams here's a good recipe: Put it in cold water and let it soak over night, then pour off the water, wipe the ham dry and put it into the kettle again, cover with fresh water and boil for three hours. Then take it out, scrape the rind when cool, put it into another kettle and pour four pints of cider over it and then enough water to cover. Put in a bay leaf, cloves, allspice and cinnamon and allow it to boil slowly for two hours more, never letting the water boil over. Then take it out, wipe it thoroughly and dust it with powdered sugar and cloves, sticking whole spices here and there in the fat. Put into the oven and bake for an hour and a half. The Maltese Cross Hams are the only ones suitable for cooking in this way and we are the exclusive dealers in them.
